Common Council Voted to Increase the Force.

TELEPHONE FRANCHISE

erintendent of Maury Cemetery. Report of City Collector-Married in Washington-Notes.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, \ No. 1102 Hull Street, \ There was something of an inroad upon the resources of the city treasury last night, but the inroad was to good purposes. Some little sparring was indulged in by members of the Finance Committee to call a temporary halt and in one parcall a temporary halt, and in one par to call a temporary halt, and in one par-tucular it was a success.

In the first place the recommendation that two additional policemen be added to the force was adopted on a close vote, and in the second place, the much-talked of appropriation of $1,500 for a new house for the superintendent of Maury Ceme-tery was made, to the protest of but four members, seven voting for the ap-propriation

Committee.

Mr. Ferguson suggested that Council seemed to be going too fast, for it was not yet known what action the Board of Aldermen would take in reference to the proposed enlargement of the police force, and Mr. Nunnally withdraw his motion.

TELEPHONE ORDINANCE.

A communication from the Board of Health was read and referred to the Ordinance Committee.
The letter asked that Council take some action toward compelling citizens to keep weeds and grave off their lots and sidewalks, and a discussion of the matter brought out the fact that many complaints of the condition of alleys had been made and it was the seens of the body that all sanitury ordinances be enforced, and it was determined that a letter be addressed to the Mayor to that end.

Mr. Fair suggested that all ordinances be enforced.

A communication from the Buildings

Mr. Fair suggested that all ordinances be enforced leading from the Buildings and Lands Committee requesting members of the Legislature to have the city charter amended so as to take in the Maury Cemetery property, for the purpose of securing certain taxation.

The matter of granting certain lands to a prospective manufacturer was referred to the Buildings and Lands Committee.

Those present were: Mesers. Reams, Fahr. Cox. Grizzard, Owen, Bradley, Fettit, Eampson, Ferguson, Taylor and Nunnally.

The sum of $2.50 each was collected from ten young men, who had the serenading habit. Chief Lipscomb had repeatedly warned them to stop their midnight singing, but they paid no attention to him, and the residents of the section of the city within a radius of two blocks of Hull and Tweifth Streets complained. The young men had decided to gtop singing. plained. The young men, stop singing.

NELSON SENT ON TO GRAND JURY

The County Man Who Killed Thomas Whiteman-Other

County News. Up to this time John Nelson, charged with the murder of his erstwhile friend, Thomas Whiteman, has not succeeded in securing ball. The amount has been

The preliminary hearing in the case occurred yesterday before 'Squire James T. Lewis, and Nelson was sent on to the grand jury. His wife and child were in the court-room, but there were no scenes of any sort. He is being defended by Mr. James R. Russell and Mr. E. L. Ryan.

The lack of an arms.

edy lie one of the points in the case. The two or three men who appeared before the coroner's jury will be summoned again, but they can throw no light upon the actual occurrence of the cutting. The statement of the prisoner, who was placed on the stand yesterday, is all that can be gotten in reference to the matter. Nelson himself makes a plen of self-defense. The bruise on his face has been accounted for as having been made accidentally during the wrestling bout. But he shows another on his shoulder and declares that Whiteman hit him with a brick. On the stand yesterday the prisoner said the dead man was evidently drunk when the trouble began. They were friends and had been wont to play with each other like boys. They began to wrestle and Nelson was thrown. Whiteman wanted to try again, but the other to wrestle and Nelson was thrown. Whiteman wanted to try again, but the other retused, and told him to wait until he was sober. Whiteman became infurfated and followed the prisoner into the house. When Nelson had gotten up the steps a little way Whiteman attacked him furfacely, and then the cutting occurred. "I killed him because he threatened to kill me." said Nelson.

'Squire Lewis said the plea of self-defense was one upon which he could not pars, and he sent the case on to the grand jury. He made the bail as light as possible, however, fixing the sum at $1,000.

Lon, Worsham, charged with using abusive language to Georgio Tucker, was tried yesterday by 'Squire Lewis and was fined $2 and costs. Charles Hood, charged with shooting a pistol on the public highway, was fined & and cests.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Lemuel B. Jones and Martha G. Jor-dan, both of Henrico. NORFOLK VS. RICHMOND
